PUBLIC LECTURE AND RETREAT WEEKEND WITH FR. RON ROLHEISER, OMI

Date and Time: Friday, September 15 7:00 pm - 9:00 pm

Address: 398 John St, N.

Public Lecture: Friday September 15, 7 p.m.

"Walking in Light and Walking in Darkness"

Location: St. John Chrysostom Catholic Church, 295 Albert Church St. Arnprior

Cost: $35 (in person or virtual)

The Human Journey is a pilgrimage in light and in darkness.

When the containers of faith don't hold up anymore, we are not losing our faith we are losing an icon. Doubt and darkness do not necessarily mean that we are struggling with faith. They can just as easily mean that we are struggling inside our imagination and that God is purifying us.

Retreat Weekend: Saturday September 16, 9:00 a.m. – Sunday September 17, 1:00 p.m.

"Spirituality and the Seasons of our Lives."

Location: Galilee Centre

Cost (includes public lecture): $445 Single, $300 Double, $295 Commuter, $190 Virtual

There are deeper levels of maturity, deeper levels of discipleship, and ever-deeper things to which we are called by Jesus. The challenges Jesus lays out in scripture speak to us in different ways at different times in our lives. The classical mystics distinguished three clear struggles within human maturity and within spiritual growth: i) the struggle to get our lives together; ii) the struggle to give our lives away; and iii) the struggle to give our deaths away. This retreat will attempt to lay out an overview of both ideal human growth and of spirituality.

Please visit our website or call the Galilee Centre office (613-623-4242 x 21) to book your spot!

National Day for Truth and Reconciliation / Every Child Matters

Date and Time: Saturday, September 30 10:00 am - 8:00 pm

Address: Various Locations

This Saturday, September 30th, marks the third National Day for Truth and Reconciliation, a day where Canadians reflect upon the experiences and history of First Nations, Métis and Inuit communities in Canada. It is a day to acknowledge, reflect, and learn about the injustices they faced through the residential school system and the ways it continues to affect Indigenous Peoples in Canada.

The Town of Arnprior honours intergenerational survivors, their families and communities who have been, and continue to be, impacted by the Residential School System. In recognition of the National Day for Truth and Reconciliation, the Survivors Flag will be flown at Town Hall the week beginning September 26th and the flags will be lowered to half-mast on Friday, September 29th.

During this same time period, Museum clock tower will be illuminated in orange.

There are no operational changes to Town facility hours on Saturday, September 30th or Monday, October 2nd.

Why we wear orange shirts on National Day for Truth and Reconciliation

National Day for Truth and Reconciliation falls on the same day as Orange Shirt Day, which honours the story of Phyllis Webstad, a former residential school student who had her orange shirt her grandmother gifted to her taken away on her first day at residential school.

The orange shirt has become a symbol of commemoration of the experiences of Indigenous children who were removed from their families to attend residential schools where their language and culture were repressed, and many children endured physical, emotional or sexual abuse. Whether you're attending an event or taking some time to learn on your own, you are encouraged to wear an orange shirt on September 30 to help spread awareness.

Ways you can observe and honour the day

On the National Day for Truth and Reconciliation, we can learn and reflect on the meaning of this day by attending an event, reading the Truth and Reconciliation report, speaking and listening to Elders or taking a moment for quiet reflection. Reconciliation is a shared responsibility for all Canadians and requires action not just on this day but every day.

Here are a few ways to observe and honour the day:

- The National Centre for Truth and Reconciliation is hosting a series of virtual lunch and learn sessions throughout the week. A national commemorative gathering will also be broadcast live from Parliament Hill on Saturday, September 30. Check your local listings to tune in live. Visit the National Centre for Truth and Reconciliation's website to learn more information and to register.
- Visitors at the Canadian Museum of History will be invited to join the conversation on truth and reconciliation on Saturday, September 30 and Sunday, October 1. Visit historymuseum.ca to learn more.
- The Arnprior Public Library staff have put together an adult and youth book display of resources that you can read and learn from throughout the year.
- On Thursday, September 28th, Creating Your Own Land Acknowledgment – at 1:00 p.m. at Ma-te-Way Park, Renfrew, visit the event page to learn more here.
- On Saturday, September 30th, a short film will be screened at the Beechwood National Memorial Centre's Sacred Space. Following the screening, visitors can participate in a guided Reconciliation Tour and attend the unveiling of the Children's Sacred Forest at 2 pm. For more information and to register, visit beechwoodottawa.ca.
- On Saturday, September 30th, BIAK EarlyOn Mobile presentation at Waba Cottage Museum & Gardens, 24 Museum Road, White Lake at 10:00 am, learn more on the event page.
- On Saturday, September 30th, Indigenous singing, dancing, and drumming. 11:00 am at Ma-te-Way Park, Renfrew, learn more on the event page.
- On Saturday, September 30th, Truth & Reconciliation Vigil 7:00 pm, Riverfront Park (Spring St.), Almonte, learn more on the event page.
